

Faculty : Medico-Sanitary Studies

Acronym: ODONTO

Option: Odontostomatology

Level: BTS

Prerequisite: Scientific series or equivalent level

Opportunities:

- Dental technician;
- Assistant Dental Doctor.

Description :

This specialty aims to train highly qualified dental therapists capable of providing high quality holistic dental care in clinics at local, national or international level. It targets young men and women who have a vocation and are ready not only to earn a living but also and above all to save lives.

Specific skills:

- Dental surgical procedures;
- Manufacture and instrumentation of the teeth;
- Dental care for patients;
- Administration of local anesthesia in dentistry;
- Manufacture of teeth;
- Dental surgical procedures;
- Oral hygiene;
- Taking the history of the disease (Interrogation);
- Management of dental emergencies in the hospital. Eg Aspiration of foreign body, syncope, etc. ;
- Assist the dental surgeon in performing major dental procedures, for example, immobilizing the fractured mandible;
- Taking intraoral x-rays;
- Manufacture of complete and partial prostheses;
- Handling of instruments;
- Operation of ancillary equipment, including chemicals from x-ray units;
- Ordering of replacement instruments, supplies and equipment.

Quality and skills:

- Be responsible and reflective;
- Have interpersonal skills;
- Have proven confidence and assurance;
- Have the critical and questioning capacity;
- Develop professional ethics and standards;
- Proactivity and ability to take initiative;
- Thinking critically;
- Be able to maintain professional moral standards;
- Have organizational skills;
- Make compromises and listen;
- Improve productivity through time management.

