

Faculty :MANAGEMENT

Acronym: STATIS

Option: STATISTICS

Level: BTS

Prerequisites: Scientific series or equivalent level

Opportunities:

Statistical studies officer

Statistical Developer

Data-Manager.

Description:

The BTS Statistics aims to train executives with essential skills for computerized data management and statistical processing. The holder of the BTS in Statistics is a recognized actor in the management of data and their statistical analysis as well in SMEs as in large companies, administrations or research centers. He is a privileged collaborator in the field of decision-making.

Specific skills:

- Understand the determinants of competitive selling and buying abroad;
- Know the mathematical tools for probability and statistics;
- Design, create, update and administer a database;
- Data collection, quality control, organization and storage, extraction and presentation of relevant information, statistical analysis and presentation of results;
- Ensure technological watch in its area of expertise;
- Use specialized software for processing statistical data;
- Apply the legal system for the collection, use and dissemination of data and results;
- Contribute to the design of studies and surveys and to the performance of statistical analyzes;
-
- Develop statistical analysis and / or reporting programs / applications;
-

Analyze needs and audit of the existing

:Quality and skills

- Adapt to a field of study;
- Lead a project
- Understand the structure, operation and strategic issues of an organization;
- Understand the challenges of information processing in organizations;
- Know the economic environment of his company;
- Observe and rigorously analyze a situation;
- Self-train;

-
- Adapt to an international environment (English and general culture);
 - Use office software.